FLUIDNI IDENTITETI

Tematska izjava

U vremenu u kojem živimo, identitet je riječ koja se često upotrebljava, a vezuje se za ljude, kompanije, političke saveze, gradove, nacije i države. Iz potrebe da se razlikujemo, a istovremeno budemo dio društvene zajednice, konstantno oblikujemo, prihvatamo i odbacujemo lične i grupne identitete; bez napora, svjesno ili nesvjesno, prelazimo iz jednog u drugi mnogo puta u toku dana, godine i života. Identitet, ili bolje: identiteti, nijesu pitanje izbora – oni su nužnost, neophodan uslov za postojanje i djelovanje u svakom savremenom društvenom kontekstu, od porodice do države i nacije. Teror identiteta nas ograničava, kategorizuje, depersonalizuje i definiše okvir za većinu društvenih uloga koje nam se nameću. Na drugoj strani, bez oslanjanja na identitetska određenja imamo problem da se povežemo i lociramo u društvenom kontekstu. Često osjećamo da nas identitetski stereotipi pogrešno predstavljaju, ali još više nas vrijeđa konstatacija da smo „bez identiteta“.

Na ovogodišnjem izdanju FLUID dizajn foruma probaćemo da razjasnimo ovo kompleksno i promjenljivo polje društvenih odnosa, kao i da prepoznamo ulogu dizajna u izgradnji i dekonstrukciji identitetskih narativa koji oblikuju našu društvenu stvarnost.

FLUID IDENTITIES

Statement

In the times we live in, identity is a word that is frequently used, and it is associated with people, companies, political alliances, cities, nations and states. Out of the need to be different and at the same time be a part of the social community, we constantly shape, accept, and reject personal and collective identities; effortlessly, consciously or unconsciously, we move from one to the other many times a day, a year and a lifetime. Identity, or better: identities, are not a matter of choice – they are a necessity, a prerequisite for existence and action in every contemporary social context, from family to state and nation. The terror of identity limits us, categorizes us, depersonalizes us, and defines the framework for most of the social roles that are imposed on us. On the other hand, without relying on identity determinations, we struggle to connect and locate ourselves in the social context. We often feel that identity stereotypes misrepresent us, but we are even more offended by the possibility that we don't have an identity.

At this year's edition of FLUID Design Forum, we will try to clarify this complex and changing field of social relations, as well as to recognize the role of design in the construction and deconstruction of identity narratives that shape our social reality.
